WESTERN JOCKEY CLUB YIELDS AND RESCINDS OUTLAW RULING

First Step Toward Settlement of Turf War Was Taken at New Orleans When It Was Found That There Would Not Be Sufficient Fields at Crescent Park if the Legislation Was Not Withdrawn-Practically All Important Stables Had Been

Jamaica Truck. N. J., Oct. 24.—The first sign of wakening on cither side in the New Orients turi war was shown to-day when the Western Jockey Club lifted the outlaw rule on those owners who raced at Ed Coerdeni's American Turi Association tracks this year.

Announcement of the ratising of the ban was made by George C. Bennett here to day. Among the prominent owners affected are More Geleblatt. States P. H. Mecharen, the Havman Jim Arthur Charley Ellison. A. J. Pleeque Albert Shamas, the bullivans and half a dozen others.

Owing to the authracing legislation in several States, the Western Jockey Club was unable to hold meetings. The Corrigan outlit, however, did manage to hid some sessions, and of course, those who raced came under the club's ban.

The Western Jockey Club has not had a race track in operation since Delmar was owners, and that there would be little support for the 160-day meet at the Crescent City track. Hence the raising of the ban.

George C. Bennett is a heavy stockholder in the Crescent City Jockey Club, which is now controlled by L. A. Cella of St. Louis and John Condon of Chicago, The Coach Chase of Smith Academy blames ill luck for the poor showing made by his team against McKinley High School his team against McKinley High School lass Saturday.

"We have material not pienty, but what we have got is good. The loys do not take the proper interest in the game, and I can safely say that not one day since practice began have I had the entire team on the field once. The long distance from school to Sportsman's Park is another handicap, but this will be overcome in a few days, as we will begin training on our own campus about the last of the week.

"A coach can do little if two backs, the center and both ends fail to show up for practice. This was the predicament I was in yesterday. We have not enough men out for two teams to get scrimmage work. My only hope now for the team is to have more players come out when we move to our new training grounds."

Coach Wilbur will line up his equad of football players against the Barnes Medies on the college campus this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Barnes, although losing the majority of its games, has played good football against its heavy opponents.

The C. B. C. team is improving with the return of several of the injured players, and it is expected that the Easton avenue squad will turn out full force for the trip to Cape Girardeau Saturday to play the State Normal team at that place.

Captain Ratican's nose is healing, and he may get into the game to-day, or Wilbur may continue to play Long at this position, to take no chances on Ratican's nose again being injured.

Smith, Seth Smith's brother, has been playing half back on the C. B. C. team, but has been out because of injuries. He may get into the game to-day, but it not will be out for the cortest Saturday.
